New Chairman Brings New Ideas to Encampment

Heather Payne

It has been said that there is nothing more powerful than women coming together and changing the world. It was this concept that inspired the Otoe-Missouria Tribe to elect a woman as their new chairman. This year is the first year in a series of new leadership roles as they prepare to vote on the changes he wants to see in the tribe.

Roubedeaux was raised by his parents, T. J. and Sherry Roubedeaux, at the tribal campus, and buildings for all who made their way over.

Tribe Hosts Wildland Firefighter Training, Learn What to Do When They Find a Tribal Artifact

By Heather Payne

A total of 64 new wildland firefighter recruits began training today at the Oklahoma Tribal Council's headquarters in Red Rock. The training will be paid for by the United States Forest Service.

Participants in the training are required to attend all five days of instruction, which will include an orientation to the basic role of a wildland firefighter, fire behavior, fire suppression techniques, and how to safely fight fires in various types of terrain.

Each participant will receive 80 hours of training, which includes hands-on training, classroom instruction, and field exercises. The training will be conducted by the United States Forest Service and its partner organizations.

The training also includes fire behavior, fire suppression techniques, and how to safely fight fires in various types of terrain.

The training will conclude with a written and practical exam, and participants who successfully pass the exam will be issued a wildland firefighter certification.

The training is a joint effort of the United States Forest Service, the Oklahoma Tribal Council, and the Oklahoma Native American Fire Association, and is designed to prepare the participants to effectively fight wildfires on behalf of the tribe.

Gone Fishin’

The Behavior Health Department staff, clients and their families took a fishing trip to Washburn Bay at Lake Santa Fe.

Staff and clients for the Social Development Center from White Eagle also came out to enjoy the day.

According to Cliff Springwater, substance abuse speaker, there was a fill of attentiveness designed to bring people together in a setting outside of the support groups.

“We were all given a chance to just enjoy something and not worry about what was going on in the world at the time,” Springwater said.

As with other programs the substance abuse anonymous meeting is 9:00 p.m.

Friday Outside Alcohol Anonymous Meeting @ the local Lions Club, and 9:00 p.m. in Bismarck.

Saturday evening Alcohol Anonymous meeting @ the local Lions Club.

Sunday night Alcohol Anonymous group meeting @ the local Lions Club.

Tribal Member Dies

Delphine Harragarra, the last full-blood member of the Otoe-Missouria Tribe, passed away on Saturday, June 7. She was just two weeks away from celebrating her 105th birthday.

Mrs. Harragarra was the younger daughter and last surviving child of the late Otey Moses and Mary McCloud Harragarra. Her mother was a founding member of the Nebraska Nebraskas Indian Chapter.

Delphine grew up with her family in the Red Rock, Oklahoma area, attending Pawnee and Chilocco Indian Boarding Schools. Delphine married John Harragarra in 1958 and the couple had five children. Delphine and John thrilled during the early years of their marriage, eventually making their home in Oklahoma. Delphine and her brother Kenneth Harragarra lived on council land, running cattle for a while, but especially. She traveled to many powwows outside the Oklahoma area, attending Pawnee and Chilocco Indian Organizations.

Delphine was truly referred to as “Granny Hop” by her niece Madame Six Star and Great-Grandchildren. She loved spending time with all of her family and continued to run the household and care for her grand and great grandchildren until her death.

Tribal Senior Citizens Program

Otoe-Missouria Senior Citizens Program

by Denice Byrnes, Title VI Director

This summer marks five years in a row that the Otoe-Missouria Tribal Council has been able to support a summer camp for its citizens. The program is designed to keep our Elders busy, engaged, and living independently without assistance.

The program was expanded in 2010 to include four day camps per year to meet the need of our Elder population. It has been a huge success, drawing on average 300 Elders each year. Last year, we added an end of summer celebration and included a trip to the state capital.

Our Elders have been inspirational and role models for her entire family until her sixteen grandchildren and thirty-great grandchildren.

We anticipate with Vernon in the Sun Dance Ceremonies for four years. Encampment. She also traveled to many powwows outside our Tribal Member Dies
