As always, you can benefit of the Otoe-Missouria and Tribal Administration continuing to work very hard for the Tribe. As always, you can continue to work very hard for the Tribe. As always, you can continue to work very hard for the Tribe.

Thank you to all of those who participated in our annual General Council meeting the first weekend of November. Unfortunately, we were unable to assemble a quorum at the meeting. We did have some good interaction and discussion with the tribal members who were in attendance. Congratulations to Vice-Chairman Ted Grant, Treasurer Courtney Burgess, and 3rd Member Alvin Moore on your re-election to your respective offices. I look forward to working with you once again on the Tribal Council. Thank you to everyone who participated in the election as a candidate or voter.

There are many activities going on here at the Tribe during this Holiday Season. I want you to each of you a very Happy Holidays. The Tribal Council and Tribal Administration continue to work very hard for the benefit of the Otoe-Missouria Tribe. As always, you can reach me at the Tribal Complex during the week at 580-723-2466 or by email at heatherp@otomiss.org. Please continue to keep those that are having difficult times in your thoughts and prayers.

Respectfully,
John R. Shelton

Tribe Opens New Water Treatment Facility

By Heather Payne, Public Information Officer

The Otoe-Missouria Tribe sold a ribbon cutting on Wednesday, December 5 in Red Rock to officially begin operation of the tribe’s new water treatment facility. The new plant will clean a maximum capacity of 250 gallons per minute on one main line while maintenance and cleaning occur on the other line. The cost of the construction was $4.4 million.

The facility can be monitored remotely and in-person. At any given time, one of the six staff members of the water treatment plant will be present in the facility to ensure high water quality.

The tribe worked with many different agencies including the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality and the Oklahoma Rural Water Association as well as Bronco Oak who constructed the plant itself and who provided training to the water plant staff.

This Native novelty was the concept of tribal member John- nie-Doot. It was on display at the Light Up the Encampment Grounds event earlier this month. The animals who have come to worship the newborn savior in the cradle board represent the seven Otoe-Missouria Clans.

Congratulations to the Housing Department maintenance staff Brian Moore, Blain Hall, Benjamin Burgess Jr and Theodore Hall (not shown) on their completion of the Pioneer Technology Center Maintenance Training. This 6-week training class included coursework on drywall repair, plumbing, appliance repair, maintenance areas; assist emergency responders; identify and anticipate hazards; reduce survivor stress. The youth who were recognized for their efforts were: Anais Bible, Derek Bible, Iran Goddell-LeClair, Blaci Haas, Laura Jefferson, Bruna Kehega, Michelle Kehga, Trace Stevens, Tucker Stephens, Martine Tequila-Ekde, Kylee Thomas, Marissa Thomas and Kyla Win. The adults advisors were: Kary Burrell, Edward Hare, Stratus Linkenton, Carolee Print and James LoCar.

Deputy Director for the Oklahoma Office of Homeland Security Johnny Vaughn also made a statement and awarded a certificate to the youth for establishing the inaugural Tribal Youth Preparedness Council.

“For the few years, the Otoe-Missouria youth have gone to the Youth Preparedness Camp in San Mar, Texas,” Vaughn said. “They have come back enthusiastic, and they have benefited by expanding their CERT training and expanding the CERT missions. They have established the Tribal Youth Preparedness Council and their excitement and pride will be carried forward by the Oklahoma youth program in general.”

In attendance were: FEMA Region 6 Director Truds Robison, Community Preparedness Officer for FEMA Region 6 Bill Bachoff and Public Affairs Coordinator for Oklahoma Office of Homeland Security Robison.

The Otoe-Missouria Tribe is:

To ensure a premium quality of life for the tribal community by providing services and opportunities to advance tribal capacity while maintaining Otoe-Missouria cultural integrity and values.

Update from OMED

Otoe-Missouria Environmental Department is excited for the upcoming New Year! A few days to keep in mind are: America Recycle Day – November 15th, Earth Day – April 22nd. The Otoe-Missouria Environmental Department looks forward to seeing you at the Swap Meet coming up in the Spring Watch for the flyer.

Greetings Relatives,

I hope this correspondence finds you and your family in good health and spirits. The Tribal loan program is Extra Ordinary and will be closed at the end of the month because the Tribal Complex is closed for the holiday. We will be accepting Tribal Loan applications for Tribal Complex on January 3rd, 2019, and Tribal Complex will be in operation from that date. There will be no same day processing of Tribal Loans. Tribal Assistance Benefits is only available until December 31, 2018! You may complete the application in for consideration. A Tribal Assistance Benefit cannot be confused as any other assistance, but only the custodial parent or legal guardian may apply to pick up your check.

Of course, you know your Tribal Assistance Benefits – Extra Ordinary will become a permanent benefit to you and your tribe and my people. It’s important that the tribal community meet needs during the holiday season. We want to help the Tribal Community. It’s important that the tribal community continue to serve you. For all new tribal tags, you will need validated tribal identification, insurance verification, a valid passport, driver’s license and your OMED CBID Card. All yearly renewals require insurance verification as well. The CEO will be able to provide you with the year of your vehicle and the filing/processing fee. You can also mail in an application from the tribal website. We can also mail or fax an application for you. Remember, there is a small $10.00 fee to apply for a tribal loan and this fee must be paid when you turn your loan application in for consideration. All tribal loans are done by tribal resolution at each monthly tribal council meeting.

Stop by to visit or talk business when you’re at the tribal complex. My door is always open to talk with everyone. Remember to pray for those who are in mourning and for those who are lost.

Mary Christmas and Happy New Year! May God bless you and your family.

Wesley O. Howard
Tax Director
Tribal Council 3rd Term Member

Holiday Assistance Available through December 31

Financial assistance for untimely needs during the holiday season is available for the Otoe-Missouria Tribe through December 31. Assistance may be obtained for three days meals, travel, or any item purchased by tribal members throughout December 31. Assistance may be obtained by tribal members through December 31. Please note: Assistance is only available until December 31, 2018! You must complete the application in for consideration. A Tribal Assistance Benefit cannot be confused as any other assistance, but only the custodial parent or legal guardian may apply to pick up your check.

Q. Do I have to apply or will they have my $100 assistance?

A. Yes, you may mail in your application. Please review the application that you would like your check mailed to you. Applications must be postmarked by December 31.

Q. Can I use my holiday assistance distance deposited?

A. No, mine, minors are eligible for assistance, but only the custodial parent or legal guard may apply to pick up your check. You must have received documentation of the custodial/legal guardian in our enrollment files.

Q. Do I have to apply or will they send the check mailed to my family?

A. You must apply to receive the holiday assistance.

Q. Can I send a friend or family member to pick up my check?

A. Only if they have a written statement from you giving them approval to pick up your check. Applications are only available until December 31, 2018! You must complete the application in for consideration. A Tribal Assistance Benefit cannot be confused as any other assistance, but only the custodial parent or legal guardian may apply to pick up your check. The remaining balance will be put back into General Fund. The funds are to help in any medical hardships that you may have throughout the year. I hope this correspondence finds you and your family in good health and spirits.

Thankful

Thank you for your correspondence.

I hope this correspondence finds you well and in good spirits. Fill me to thank you for all your continued support and allowing me to be your Tribal Trea- surer for the Otoe-Missouria Tribe. I love working for my tribe and my people.

I have been brought to my attention that some of you have been wondering about your Tribal Health Benefits Card renewal.

The Tribal Council has been gracious enough to fund the cards again for $25.00. The amount that is left on the card as of 12/21/2018 will not roll over to the new year. The Tribal Council is committed to paying for your tribe and my people.

If you have questions, read in- formation, or just want to see what we are currently working on, please take care of the environment, find the time to be with your family and help the Tribal Community. As always, the OMED hopes every- one has a blessed holiday season.

Winter 2018

Season Greetings from Red Rock Creek!

Otoe War Mothers

December 5th and 6th, 2018 the Otoe-Missouria Tribal Historic Preservation Office hosted a Wooden Flute Making Workshop on the Otoe-Missouria Tribal Complex from 4p-9p each evening. The instructor was William Quakenbush, an enrolled Otoe-Missouria Nation. William has worked for the Ho-Chunk Nation’s Heritage Preservation Department for 20 years and currently serves as the Tribal Historic Preservation Office. William learned how to make traditional court shoes, in part, from his grandfather. William will pass along this knowledge to interested individuals.

Otoe-Missouria Regalia Making Class

The Tribal Historic Preservation Office hosted its first Otoe-Missouria Regalia Making Class for students at the Ernest Vet- ter Jr Library at the tribal complex.

Indian Name Project

I am currently starting a project for the Otoe-Missouria Language Department for specific Indian names to preserve for future generations to come.

Otoe-Missouria Christmas Gift Tradition

The person may offer the necklace to the admiral as a token of respect for his or her service. The admiral can then accept the necklace as a token of the person’s respect and gratitude.

Memory Tree of Angels Open to Public

The tree is set up in the Truman Daily Learning Center at the Tribal Complex. Please tag the ornament with the name of the child and the day of death. Please make sure the ornament tag is available from the museum.

Otoe-Missouria Regalia Making Class:

The children learned the basics of design and structure of regalia. The classes are open to boys and girls in grades 6-12 who have a desire to dance. Participants must be Otoe-Missouria tribal members or descendants. Limited spots are open. Please call 580-723-4465 ext 202 for more information.

Occasional Indian names are available from the reception with the name of your choice. Please tag the ornament and contact the Otoe War Mothers by calling 580-723-4466 ext 212. Thank you for your assistance with this project.

By Olivia Buffalohead, Language Assistant

I would like your child’s, your family’s Indian name. If possible, please let me know the name, your spelling, your pronunciation, the clan it belongs to and if it belonged to someone else before. I can be reached by mail bhouflage@omtribe.org or by phone 74651 or by email Willow@omtribe.org or call (580) 723-4466 ext 124. Thank you for your assistance with this project.

The Secret to Staying Young

By Stephen Prevott, M.D.

“Diet the season. You know, that time of year when cocktail parties & holiday gatherings abound. We get four lectures on wearing a copious amount of dessert, dips & seasonal beverages — all under the guise of renewing our acquaintance.

At such gatherings, as certainly as I’ll be reminded with Bing Crosby’s notion of “White Christmas,” people will be familiarize with health questions when they learn I work at the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation. “Doc,” someone will inevitably ask me, “When are you going to develop a cure for aging?”

Actually, I say, we already have. It’s called exercise.

Caregivers of People with Dementia at Greater Risk for Social Isolation, Loneliness

AARP poll reveals that in 10 years of social loss with friends and more than half of those over 65 who are family members and friends have decreased in half than how social their relatives may have nearly 45 percent say they feel alone. In addition, they may grow further apart from the ones they care for and other family members because of their caregiving responsibilities. Both social isolation and loneliness are linked to poorer physical and mental health outcomes.

“Family caregivers take on big responsibilities that can physically, emotionally and financially drain a family. Our research shows that this caregiving role can lead to increased stress for those caring for loved ones with dementia,” said Nancy Leibovitz, AARP Chief Advocacy and Engagement Officer. “That’s why we are helping families connect to resources and support they need to manage their own other needs of their loved one.”

AARP’s new poll found that 3.5 million of family caregivers for those with dementia are less emotionally connected, and they are significantly more likely to skip medical care – over half (55 percent) have done so, compared to 30 percent among the total caregiver population. However, there were positive health behaviors identified in the poll as well – 79 percent of caregivers say they eat more fruits and vegetables than they did prior to caring for their loved one. AARP helps family caregivers find the information and support they need to manage their own other needs of their loved one.”

6 Reasons Seniors Feel Sad During the Holiday Season

By Evona Dickinson, Hispanic Times Contributing Writer

Blue Christmas

It’s the most wonderful time of the year!

For many seniors, the holiday season is a time filled with joy and cheer. However, some seniors experience sadness and loneliness during the holidays, and for those who are isolated or alone, the season can be particularly difficult. In this article, we take a look at some of the reasons why seniors may feel sad during the holiday season and offer some tips for dealing with these emotions.

1. Financial Stress

Seniors are often on a limited, fixed income. This can be particularly challenging during the holiday season, when seniors might be expected to provide an abundant amount of money to friends and family. As a result, seniors may feel pressure to contribute to the family, and this can be particularly difficult during the holiday season.

2. Isolation

Seniors long for the companionship of friends and family. Unfortunately, many seniors experience a lack of regular contact with others that can put them at risk of health conditions and dementia.

3. Loneliness

Loneliness can be particularly difficult during the holiday season, when seniors might be expected to provide an abundant amount of time and energy to the family. As a result, seniors may feel pressure to contribute to the family, and this can be particularly difficult during the holiday season.

4. Mobility

Injuries can prohibit full mobility. Perhaps your aging parent can’t get around as they used to and is at risk of falling? Depending on age, they may need to manage their own care. Visit www.aarp.org to learn more about the latest research and resources to help family caregivers.

5. Social Isolation

Seniors who don’t have family or friends to spend time with during the holidays might feel sad and lonely.

6. Loss

The holiday season is a time to remember loved ones who have passed away. Seniors who haven’t had the opportunity to spend time with loved ones during the holidays might feel sad and lonely.

In conclusion, the holiday season can be a time of joy and cheer for many seniors. However, for those who are isolated or alone, the season can be particularly difficult. In this article, we take a look at some of the reasons why seniors may feel sad during the holiday season and offer some tips for dealing with these emotions. If you think your aging parent is at risk of falling, visit www.aarp.org to learn more about the latest research and resources to help family caregivers.

Head Start Happenings

Head Start is growing! Class sizes are at max capacity with our current enrollment at 45. Our staff has also grown this school year, adding to our team three new teachers. Adelina Ramirez is our new 4-year-old teacher assistant. Adelina has 8 years of daycare experience and is working toward her Early Childhood Education degree. Andy Pekau is our new 3-year-old teacher. Andy has 4 years of experience working with the Boys and Girls Club of Oklahoma as well as the Cherokee Nation Head Start. She holds an Associate of Arts degree from Connors State College. Rosa Tohee is our new 3-year-old teacher assistant. Rosa previously worked as a custodian at Frontier Public Schools for the past 16 years. She has an Associate in Elementary Education from Northern Oklahoma College.

We have also made some changes to our Management Staff. Belinda Wesbrook has been a teacher at Otoe-Missouria Head Start for the past 9 years but has stepped out of the classroom and has accepted the position as our Education Coordinator. Belinda holds an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education from Northern Oklahoma College, and is currently working towards her Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Development.

The staff and children from Head Start wish you the Happiest of Holidays!

Northern Oklahoma College Conducts On-Site Enrollment at Tribe

Northern Oklahoma College conducted an on-site enrollment event at the Otoe-Missouria education center on December 5. NOC students dropped by and enrolled for the 2019 spring and summer semesters. Gina Conneywerdy, NOC’s Native American Recruiter and Advisor, met with Otoe-Missouria tribal members to provide assistance with financial aid, tribal funding, bursar questions, and course enrollment.

The on-site enrollment event was part of services provided by NOC’s Title III NASNTI grant. Additional members of the enrollment team were Dr. Rae Ann Kraus, NASNTI Grant Project Director, and Anna Scott, Distance Learning Specialist.

Conneywerdy said, “Through the NASNTI grant, we are able to provide more personalized student services for Otoe-Missouria students.”

NOC worked with the Tribe to create an access site in the Education Building where students can use NOC computers to take online classes or connect to ITV courses. NOC is currently enrolling for the 2019 spring and summer semesters. Spring classes begin January 14, 2019. Four sessions of summer school run from May 18 to August 1. Fall 2019 classes are projected to begin August 19, 2019.
